

MISSING 7-YEAR-OLD BOY FROM WASHINGTON COUNTY FOUND CONSCIOUS AND RESPONSIVE

Monday, 26 September 2011 06:35

The 7-year-old boy that went missing Saturday evening in Washington County has been found. Randall Chesser was found conscious and responsive. He was found at 2:45 PM EDT by a ground search team from Mercer County, Kentucky, next to a creek approximately 3 miles from his residence. He was transported to an undisclosed medical facility for observation. There will be more details when they become available.