

Barren County Board of Education met in their October session last night, and heard from Superintendent Bo Matthews that with the school year already a quarter of the way complete, the district is anxiously awaiting test results.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/1012matthews.mp3{/audio}

Of course funding is always a concern for any school district, and Finance Officer John Stith gave the board a comparison of this years funding versus last year

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/1012stith.mp3{/audio}

And Supervisor of Instruction Dr. Benny Lile says they are working with the board in actively seeking on other sources of funding.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/1012lile.mp3{/audio}

The board is taking advantage of the KISTA program which allows the amortization of bus purchases over a period of time, as we learn from Interim Transportation Director Charlie Campbell.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/1012campbell.mp3{/audio}

And the Barren County Board always loves to recognize outstanding employees and students in the district. Mark Wallace has this months honorees

BARREN BOARD TALKS ABOUT FINANCES; HONORS STUDENTS AND TEACHERS

Friday, 12 October 2012 06:23

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/1012wallace.mp3{/audio}