

3 PERSON CAR ACCIDENT ON WEST MAIN STREET SENDING ONE TO THE HOSPITAL

Tuesday, 23 October 2012 13:56

Yesterday, October 22ND, at 3:26 pm, Mark Huddleston was driving on North Honeysuckle Drive, when he pulled out onto West Main Street attempting to head east, he traveled into the path of Noxie Beattey, who was traveling east, colliding with her vehicle in the left driver side.

After impact, it sent her vehicle into a spin with her vehicle facing west still in movement colliding with Latisha Cox. After impact, it sent Latishas vehicle slightly off the roadway colliding with the curb causing right rear damage to her tire and wheel.

Huddleston sustained front right damage, Beattey sustained front left and right front damage and Cox sustained front left and right rear damage.

Huddleston declined medical attention as well as Cox. Beattey was transported to TJ Sampson Hospital with possible neck injury.

Huddleston was removed from the scene by the owner. Beattey was removed from scene by Crossroads Towing due to the unit being disabled. Cox was removed from the scene by Witty's Towing due to the unit being disabled.