

Today is election day polls will be open until 6 pm, at which time WCLU News will take the air to bring you local coverage. 80 tabulators, stringers and others will join Joe Myers, local attorney John Rogers and Henry Royse live from the WCLU Studios tonight with all the coverage on Lite 102.3 WCLU 1490, EPB Cable 6 and wcluradio.com.

There may be some things that don't seem quite right to you at the polls Tuesday. Attorney General Jack Conway reminds you to report anything out of the ordinary to his Election Fraud Hotline,

{audio}<http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/1106conway.mp3>{/audio}

Conway says the line got about 450 calls during the last Presidential primary and general election 4 years ago.. The AG says there've been more than a dozen voter fraud and vote-buying convictions in the state in the last 2 years.

Conway says anyone who has trouble casting a ballot, feels someone's trying to intimidate them into not voting, or sees anything going on that seems irregular, should call the hotline

ELECTION DAY: WCLU HAS LOCAL COVERAGE; VOTER HOTLINE WILL BE ACTIVE

Tuesday, 06 November 2012 07:44
