

BOIL WATER ADVISORY FOR SOME RESIDENTS OF CAVE CITY TODAY

Wednesday, 14 November 2012 07:35

Some residents in Cave City are waking up today with a boil water advisory. The Caveland Environmental Authority says that due to a traffic accident, a fire hydrant was damaged on the Whitney Woods Drive. Because of this Caveland Environmental Authority customers on Whitney Woods Drive should boil water for the next 24 hours . Authorities have sent a sample for testing and the advisory should be lifted early Thursday morning.
