

Bowling Green Police Investigated A Call From Greenwood Mall Last Night Around 9pm About A Possible Shoplifting Incident. Officers Arrived And Were Directed To A White Plymouth By Mall Security. Shortly After Officers Arrived a Male 21 Year Old Troy D. Dyson And Female, 21 Year Old Tysheka Davis Both Of Nashville Exited The Mall And Were Told To Stop By Officers. Dyson Ran To The Vehicle Where Officer Brad Hogue Attempted To Detain Him, And Was Unsuccessful. Dyson Backed His Vehicle Into Another Officer's Cruiser Then Pulled Forward Knocking Officer Hogue To The Ground And Narrowly Missing Another Officer. He Then Continued Forward Running Over Officer Hogue's Leg, Struck Another Vehicle, Knocked Down A Sign, And Drove Toward The Mall Exit At A High Rate Of Speed. Dyson Entered Scottsville Road, Disregarded A Traffic Light In Front Of Kroger And Struck Two Vehicles Disabling His Own. Dyson Ran From The Vehicle And Was Apprehended Behind Shoe Carnival By Another Officer. Davis Cross Scottsville Road And Entered Taco Bell Where She Was Apprehended By Police Without Incident. Officer Hogue Was Transported To An Area Hospital Where He Was Treated And Released. A Pregnant Female Was Injured But Her Condition Is Unknown. Tyson Was Arrested For Assault 2nd Degree On A Police Officer, Fleeing Or Evading Police 1st Degree, Leaving The Scene Of An Accident And Wanton Endangerment 1st

Degree On A Police Officer. Tyson Was Also Arrested On Four Warrants Out Of Tennessee. Davis Was Arrested For Felony Theft By Unlawful Taking-Shoplifting.