

ARREST MADE IN TJ SAMSON BOMB THREAT

Monday, 03 December 2012 11:58

Glasgow Police have made an arrest in connection to the bomb threat at TJ Samson Hospital that took place last Friday, November 30.

22 year old Hannah R. Sparks of Bee Spring originally told authorities she found a note written on a wall in a restroom at TJ that said a bomb was going to explode at 12 noon. Further investigation of the incident and questioning of Sparks, by Colonel Duff and Officer Fletcher led to her confession that she had written the note.

Hannah R. Sparks was arrested on a warrant issued by the County Attorney for a charge of Terroristic Threatening, 1st Degree. She was lodged in the Barren County Detention Center.

Criminal Investigation Detectives Sgt. Arbogast and Lt. Phelps initiated the investigation at the scene.
