

I-65 COLLISION INJURES TWO

Sunday, 09 December 2012 11:28

Police responded to a car collision on I-65 at the 45 mile marker. On Saturday, Kentucky State Police responded to a passenger car operated by Kimberly O'Neal of Munfordville, KY. She was traveling North on I-65 when her vehicle hydroplaned and exited the North shoulder and struck an embankment overturning multiple times. Two passengers in the car, Heather Horton and a 22 month old child were transported to T.J. Samson Community Hospital in Glasgow, KY where they were treated and released.

All occupants in the vehicle were wearing their seat belts at the time of the collision.
