

FATAL COLLISION TUESDAY ON LOUISVILLE ROAD

Thursday, 20 December 2012 08:47

On Tuesday, December 18th, Warren County Sheriff's Office Deputies responded to a call of a fatal injury collision on Louisville Road near Bristow Rd. 75-year-old Charles Brower of Bowling Green was traveling northbound on Louisville Road in a 2012 Dodge Caravan, when he ran off the road near Mt. Hebrew Church and continued through a field behind Jr. Foods near Bristow Rd, where he came to rest in a sink hole. There were not any passengers in the vehicle. Brower was wearing a seatbelt, and was pronounced dead on the scene. The collision is still under investigation.
