

INJURY COLLISION IN HART COUNTY LAST NIGHT DUE TO DEER

Monday, 24 December 2012 08:40

On the evening of December 23, 2012, Kentucky State Police Post 3 Bowling Green Troopers responded to Priceville Road approximately 2 miles east of Bonnieville in reference to an injury collision.

Upon the troopers arrival it was discovered that a blue 2010 Ford Escape being operated by 39-year-old Cassandra S. Hernandez of Bonnieville had struck a fence. Mrs. Hernandez informed the troopers that she was traveling eastbound on Priceville Road when she swerved to avoid a deer in the roadway and ran off the highway striking the fence.

Mrs. Hernandez along with 35-year-old George H. Aubrey of Elizabethtown was transported to Hardin Memorial Hospital in Elizabethtown for non life threatening injuries.

Trooper Justin Rountree is conducting the investigation of the collision and was assisted by Trooper Timmy Jewell. They were also assisted by the Hart County Ambulance Service and the Bonnieville Fire Department.
