

The Kentucky General Assembly's session begins tomorrow and it's time to hone in on what's important involving our government, our money, and our leaders. State Representative Johnny Bell is a part of many committees as well, some include; banking and insurance, judicial, state government, co-chairman of the administrative regulation review sub-committee, military officials, rural economy development, and more. Bell told WCLU News what he expects from the upcoming session.

{audio}<http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0107bell1.mp3>{/audio}

Then we asked Bell what he thought the most important things were that would affect the people directly from this session.

{audio}<http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0107bell2.mp3>{/audio}

We will be speaking with State Rep. Johnny Bell throughout the Legislative Session here on WCLU.