

A Bowling Green man has been charged with robbing a bank back in June.

The Bowling Green Police Department arrested Steven Paul Harston, 47, of Bowling

Green in connection with the June 20, robbery of American Bank and Trust on Fairview Avenue. During this extensive investigation the department considers Mr.

Harston a strong suspect in multiple bank robberies in south central Kentucky and northern Tennessee. The Bowling Green Police Department, in cooperation with the Federal Bureau of Investigations, continues to search for evidence and information regarding other robberies. Mr. Harston is lodged in the Warren County Regional Jail for Robbery 1st degree. Mr. Harston was arrested Wednesday afternoon on Shive Lane, in Bowling Green, without incident.
