

ACCIDENT SATURDAY IN ALBANY INVOLVES AMBULANCE

Sunday, 13 January 2013 06:48

Trooper Brian Gibson is investigating a collision that occurred earlier today at approximately 7:54 AM CST in the limits of Albany. 26-year-old Jana Griffis of Monticello was traveling south on Water Street, operating a 2008 Ford F-350 Ambulance. Griffis lost control in a curve due to wet roads, left the roadway, struck a fence and then a house. Griffis and a passenger, 49-year-old Steve Dicken, of Albany, were both belted. Dicken was treated and released from the Clinton County Hospital. No one at the residence was injured.
