

As you may know, UPS is the world's third largest employer with over 397,000 workers on the payroll. One of the company's top-tier representatives was on hand yesterday at the Cave City Convention Center for the South-Central Kentucky Business Expo, sponsored by T.J. Samson Community Hospital and Glasgow Coin and Jewelry. Guest Speaker Bob Waitkus of UPS and former liaison to Mitch McConnell, spoke to the audience yesterday on the power of logistics and what it means to a 21st century economy. His words sent a clear message to all those on hand for yesterday's well-attended business expo.

One interesting statistic from yesterday about UPS is that they deliver 15.8 million packages or documents every day. Again, that was Bob Waitkus, keynote speaker for the South-Central Kentucky Business Expo sponsored by Glasgow Coin and Jewelry, T.J. Samson Community Hospital, and all corporate sponsors of the Glasgow-Barren County Chamber of Commerce.
