

CAR VS. BULL WRECK INJURES A BURKESVILLE WOMAN

Sunday, 03 March 2013 10:34

Kentucky State Police are investigating a collision. 60-year-old Dorothy Richard of Burkesville was traveling south on Ky 61 on Saturday, March 2, 2013 at 7:36 PM CST. She was driving a 1999 Toyota, when she struck a bull standing in the roadway. Ms. Richard was wearing her seatbelt and was taken to Westlake Hospital where she was treated and released. Adair County EMS, Breeding Fire Department and the Adair County Highway Department assisted Trooper Kenny Brown.