

WRECK WITH INJURIES ON STOVALL ROAD YESTERDAY

Wednesday, 20 March 2013 08:03

On Tuesday at 3:39 pm, the Barren County Sheriff's Department responded to a possible wreck with injuries on Stovall Rd. 18-year-old Travis S. Poynter of Cave City told emergency personnel that he was traveling North on Stovall Road when he lost control of his 2001 Kia Rio. The vehicle went off the right shoulder of the roadway into a ditch, causing the vehicle to roll over. The vehicle came to a rest partially in the roadway. Poynter was transported by Barren Metcalfe EMS to TJ Samson Hospital for treatment of non-life threatening injuries. Deputy Mike Houchens is investigating the accident. He was assisted on scene by the Park City Fire Department.
