

FIRE ON STEWART DRIVE SUNDAY

Monday, 25 March 2013 09:03

The Glasgow fire department responded to a report of a structure fire at 127 Stewart Dr. at 4:35 pm on Sunday. On arrival firefighters found that the fire was in the kitchen and had been put out by the resident. A pot of oil on the stove had overheated and caught on fire. Firefighters removed a over the stove microwave to check for fire extension and none was found. No injuries were reported. Firefighters were on the scene around 30 minutes.
