

TRAFFIC STOP ON SATURDAY LEADS TO MATH LAB BUST

Monday, 01 April 2013 10:24

On Saturday, March 30th, at 5:47 pm, Warren County Sheriff's Deputies made a traffic stop on a van operated by Jamie Matthews with a passenger, Bonita Lackey. During the traffic stop, a methamphetamine lab was located in it. A clandestine lab trained deputy cleaned up the lab and its components. Matthews and Lackey were arrested and lodged at the Warren County Regional Jail. Both were charged with Manufacturing Methamphetamine, Possession Of Methamphetamine, Possession of Marijuana, and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia.
