

From Federal Court in Bowling Green, day two of the trial of three Barren County Law Enforcement officers has ended. On the witness stand at the end of today's proceedings was Former Barren County Deputy Sheriff Adam Minor. Minor was being questioned by Prosecuting attorney Roy Conn III. According to WCLU's Nellie Pickett covering the proceedings Conn was asking Minor about the specifics of the apprehension of Randy Stinnett following the high speed chase through parts of Glasgow and Barren County. The trial will resume at 9 am Wednesday.
