

In the Federal Trial in Bowling Green, court was halted this morning after a Juror raised his hand and asked to speak to the judge. After speaking with the juror and lawyers for both sides, the judge told everyone to go ahead and go to lunch and they would address the jurors question after lunch. Guthrie True finished his questioning of Agent Mike Brown earlier this morning. They went back over the same things they discussed yesterday about the inconsistency in Agent Brown's report as to what the defendants claim they told him.
