

2 INJURED IN EARLY MORNING WRECK WEDNESDAY

Thursday, 09 May 2013 04:40

5:20 a.m. Wednesday morning KSP was dispatched to a injury accident in the 11000 block of Cub Run Highway.

Dakota Napper (19) had been traveling west on Cub Run Highway when he failed to negotiate a right hand curve. Mr. Napper went off the left shoulder of the roadway and struck a tree in a head on manner. The driver was transported to Caverna Memorial Hospital where he was treated and released. The passenger Daryl C. Isaacs (19) was transported by Hart County EMS to Hardin Memorial where he was later flown to the University of Louisville. Mr. Isaacs has been admitted there for multiple injuries, and was listed in critical condition. Trooper

Jonathan McChesney was assisted by the Cub Run Fire Department, and the Hart County EMS.

Neither of the two occupants was wearing their seat belts
