

Tomorrow marks a very special day in our community. You've watch it rise up and now you are invited to come for a tour of the brand new T.J.Samson Health Pavilion. The state of the art facility will open for patients on May 20th. Tuesday is a day to invite the community in for a first look at T.J. Samson's Pavilion which will address and improve healthcare for a changing population, according to T.J. Samson Chief Operating Officer, Neil Thornbury.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0513neil.mp3{/audio}

The 226,000 Sq foot facility will house doctors practices, plus diagnostic testing, physical therapy, rehab, dialysis, an urgent clinic and much more. Again the hours for the community's first look at the pavilion is Tuesday from 5 until 7 pm.