

The ninth annual Antique Tractor Convention was held this weekend at the Stanley R. Jewell farm in Lucas. This fundraising event, organized by Stanley "Papa" Jewell, his family and two dedicated volunteers featured over 20 total tractors and 15 of Jewell's own tractors.

All proceeds from this event go towards helping needy families pay for rent, household expenses and funeral and medical expenses. One child said about the suggested donation:

{audio}<http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0610antiquetractors.mp3>{/audio}

The event also featured children's games and a barbecue lunch.