

Starting Today, South Green Street will be reduced to just one lane until July 15th.

Glasgow Water Company will be working along South Green Street to complete a water line replacement project. Glasgow Water Company's Engineering Manager, Clint Harbison explains the project's timing:

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0611harbison1.mp3{/audio}

Harbison on the plans to accommodate drivers:

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0611harbison2.mp3{/audio}

The project is expected to help provide better fire protection on the pipe line and to improve water service to the neighborhood and the downtown area as well.

BIG PROJECT STARTS ON SOUTH GREEN STREET TODAY; IMPROVEMENTS COMING, TRAFFIC REDUC

Tuesday, 11 June 2013 03:49
