

Today is a national holiday set aside to honor the American flag. It is national Flag Day, the 236th birthday of the old Stars and Stripes.

We all know what the national flag stands for but do you know the meaning behind Glasgow's city flag? WCLU News decided to do some research to find out.

Here is Wes Royse with what we found:

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0614wesflag.mp3{/audio}

You can see Glasgow's city flag anytime. It's always flying out in front of City Hall.