

INJURIES IN WRECK ON GLASGOW ROAD NEAR BURKESVILLE

Friday, 14 June 2013 04:02

Tpr. Brian Gibson is investigating a collision that occurred

Thursday at approximately 12:37 PM, 6 miles west of Burkesville on Glasgow Road.

78-year-old Preston Graves of Marrowbone was traveling west operating a 1995 Toyota Camry. The Camry struck a trailer being pulled by a 2001 Ford F250 that was making a right turn into a private drive. The Ford was operated by a 26-year-old Steven Wheat of Burkesville.

Graves and a passenger, 70-year-old Linda Graves were both transported to Cumberland County Hospital where they were treated for minor injuries. Wheat and his passengers, 23-year-old Ethan Cash of Burkesville and 46-year-old Jerry Pennycuff of Burkesville were not injured. No passengers in either vehicle were belted at the time of the collision.

INJURIES IN WRECK ON GLASGOW ROAD NEAR BURKESVILLE

Friday, 14 June 2013 04:02