

MISSING HART COUNTY MAN FOUND THURSDAY

Friday, 05 July 2013 06:30

A man reported missing on Monday has been found. On Thursday, July 4 Kentucky State Police Troopers located Martin "Marty" Lewis Melton in a field in Hart County. At the time of his disappearance he was described as having numerous medical issues by State Police. He was taken to Caverna Memorial Hospital for observation yesterday.

Prior to his being found, Mr. Melton was last seen in a wooded area off Friendship Church Road in Hart County. According to KSP. Melton is currently wanted through Barren County on charges of 4th Degree Assault and Persistent Felony Offender 1st Degree.