

Kentucky State Police arrested two additional men in connection with a June Meth lab case in Hart County.

Andrew W. Nixon (19) of Munfordville and Eric D. Riggs (25) of Bonnieville fled the scene of the meth lab located at 525 Lone Star Road in Hart County on June 29, 2013.

Andrew Nixon was found and arrested on Wednesday, July 3, 2013

, while Eric Riggs was located the next day by police. Kevin Cox and Wesley Cox were originally arrested in this case as well. The men were charged with Fleeing/evading police, 2 nd

degree (on foot), Manufacturing Methamphetamine, Complicity to Manufacturing Methamphetamine, Unlawful Possession of Meth Precursors, Complicity to Unlawful Possession of Meth Precursors, Possession of a Controlled Substance, 1 st

degree, 1

st offense (drug unspecified), Complicity to Possession of a Controlled Substance, 1 st

degree, 1

st offense (drug unspecified), Burglary, 2

nd

degree, and Complicity to Burglary, 2

nd

degree. They are both been lodged in the Hart County Jail.

Trooper Daniel White is the investigating trooper in this case. He was assisted in investigating this case and locating these subjects by Troopers Jeremy Smith, Justin Rountree, Brett Coomes, and Randy Chambers, and Munfordville P.D. Officer Shawn White.