

The ex-wife of a former Kentucky lawmaker serving life in prison for murder has agreed to a public television interview this weekend.

Tracey Damron is scheduled to appear on the KET show One to One with Bill Goodman.

Damron was married to Steve Nunn, a long-time lawmaker and son of a former Kentucky governor, from 1996 to 2006. Nunn was charged with murder in the 2009 shooting death of his former fiancée, Amanda Ross. He pleaded guilty in 2011.

The show airs Sunday at 1 p.m. EDT, and will be re-aired July 23 and July 24 at 7:30 a.m. EDT.

Damron is appearing on the show to promote a book she has written about her marriage to Nunn, called "A Trail of Feathers."
