

DRUG ARREST ON SAM TERRY STREET

Tuesday, 16 July 2013 13:55

On Monday, at approximately 10:09 pm, Glasgow Police responded to suspected drug activity at Sam Terry Avenue Apartment 11. Matthew Robertson, 28 and Nicole Robertson 27 both of Glasgow gave verbal consent to search the apartment.

Police found a plastic bag containing 3 Hydrocodone 10 mg tablets and 2 alprazolam. Police also found 3 ½ cc syringes in a plastic bag in the bedroom closet.

Inside the bathroom, a spoon with suspected residue was located. Both denied ownership of the items, but they are liable as the lease holders of the apartment. Both have a court date of July 29th.

Police arrested Nathan C Gonzalez, age 22 of Glasgow at the same location. Gonzalez was found in possession of meth and of drug paraphernalia.

Police found a syringe needle with a clear substance in Gonzalez's backpack. The substance-tested positive as being meth.

Gonzalez is currently lodged in the Barren County Detention Center.
