

The new section of Highway 90 east of Glasgow opened at 11 am Thursday morning. This is a much improved section of road, but Tom Riddle, Public Relations officer for the East Barren Fire Department says motorists need to be careful and use caution because of the unfamiliar surroundings.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0719riddle.mp3{/audio}

Riddle also says that a lot of construction equipment still is being moved as the project is wrapped up.