An accident occurred in Bowling Green around 2:07 Friday afternoon. Warren County Sheriff's deputies responded to Louisville Road and Commonwealth Blvd for a two vehicle injury collision. A red 1999 Pontiac, driven by a 17 year old from Smiths Grove who was traveling northbound on Louisville Road and rear ended a 1999 tan Chevrolet driven by 33 year old Alfred Raymer of Bowling Green. The 17 year old in the Pontiac had minor injuries but was not transported by EMS. Raymer had three passengers in his vehicle. Raymer, his passenger 25 year old Jennifer Raymer and a 6 year old were all transported to the Medical Center for non-life threatening injuries. All occupants were reportedly wearing seat belts. Alcohol and drugs are not believed to be a factor in the accident. The accident remains under investigation by the Warren County Sheriff's Department.
