

LANDON HOUCHENS IS NATIONAL ATV CHAMPION!

Tuesday, 13 August 2013 06:38

Barren County's Landon Houchens won the ATV national racing event held this past weekend before a crowd of 3000 to 4000 people at Hurricane Mills, Tennessee. Ryan is 9 years old and is a student at Red Cross Elementary. The championship is done on a point system of 12 different events throughout the season, and Hurricane Mills was the final leg of the series. WCLU News asked Landon for some thoughts on this national championship recognition.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0813landon.mp3{/audio}

Landon's younger brother Kaiden, age 5 came in 6th place in his age category. Their father, Ryan Houchens says it has been quite the experience.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0813ryan.mp3{/audio}

LANDON HOUCHENS IS NATIONAL ATV CHAMPION!

Tuesday, 13 August 2013 06:38

Later this year Landon will travel to West Virginia for a recognition ceremony.