

MARION COUNTY SHOOTING YESTERDAY EVENING

Tuesday, 13 August 2013 13:06

Detective B.J. Burton is investigating a shooting that occurred Monday, August 13 at approximately 7:40 PM EDT. 45-year-old Mark Mattingly, of Lebanon, was sitting on his front porch at his residence at 337 East Martin Blvd, when an unknown black male came onto the porch and shot him several times before fleeing the area. The black male was described as being approximately 5'7" tall and was wearing a gray hoodie. Anyone with any information is asked to contact the Kentucky State Police at 1-800-222-5555 or by text-a-tip at 67283. Mattingly is in stable condition at Springview Hospital.