

Several southern Kentucky law enforcement agencies will be able to work safer thanks to Law Enforcement Protection Program grant awards. Governor Steve Beshear announced today that among the 17 total KY Law Enforcement Agencies that were selected, were Adair County Fiscal Court, Edmonson County Fiscal Court, Monroe County Fiscal Court and the City of Smith's Grove. Gene Kiser, executive director of the Kentucky Office of Homeland Security shared, "it's good to know we can help in some way to supply law enforcement with the tools they need to protect the citizens of our Commonwealth."