

WKU President Gary Ransdell presented the annual Spirit of WKU, diversity and sustainability awards Friday morning (Aug. 23) at the opening convocation at Van Meter Hall.

For the first time a WKU-Glasgow Student has won a presidential award. Angela Briggs, a junior sociology major at WKU-Glasgow Campus received the award.

Briggs is one of the founders of the WKU-Glasgow Greentoppers and has participated in several sustainability events including Buy Your Own, Awaken the Dreamer symposium, Earth Day rain barrel workshop and Tour de Farm community bike ride and farm-to-table meal.
