

We all are consumers and we should all be thinking locally when we shop. Does 'Buy Local' make a difference? Ernie Myers, Executive Vice President of the Glasgow-Barren County Chamber of Commerce, says it absolutely makes a difference.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/082913chambermyers.mp3{/audio}

Sustainable Glasgow, sponsors of the Bounty of the Barrens Market, encourages everyone to support their locally owned businesses and welcomes everyone to the Saturday farmer's market. Dr. Jerry Ralston, board member of Sustainable Glasgow,

Says there is something for everyone.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/082213ralston.mp3{/audio}

BUY LOCAL!

Friday, 30 August 2013 07:51

Bounty of the Barren's farmer's market will be on the square this Saturday from 8:00am-noon and is the perfect opportunity to buy local!