

GLASGOW WOMAN ARRESTED ON DRUG CHARGES

Tuesday, 08 October 2013 06:30

According to Julie Anne Williams, GPD Public Relations Officer, the Glasgow Police Department arrested 53 year old Rebecca Matthews of Sunset Avenue in Glasgow on Saturday. Officers were executing a search warrant on Matthews' residence when officers notice a plastic bag full of numerous smaller plastic bags in Matthews purse. Along with this, Officers also noticed a prescription bottle with pills inside. Matthews admitted on tape that she had sold several pills to an individual that had just left her residence before police arrived.