

ACCIDENT RESULTS IN FATALITY OF RUSSELLVILLE MAN

Monday, 21 October 2013 14:40

Last Saturday, the Warren County Sheriff's Deputies responded to a one vehicle injury collision at Nashville Road at Morehead Road. Upon arrival, it was determined that 61 year old Vickie Robinson of Bowling Green was driving when her vehicle left the roadway, struck a telephone pole, and overturned several times. Robinson was stat flighted to Vanderbilt in Nashville. 51 year old Tony Boisseau of Russellville, the passenger in the vehicle, died as a result of injuries sustained in the collision.

After the preliminary investigation, it was determined that just prior to the collision, a verbal altercation had taken place. According to Robinson, Boisseau grabbed the steering wheel causing her to lose control of the vehicle. The investigation is ongoing.
