

Jason Booher, a survivor of the infamous Carrolton Bus Crash, visited Glasgow Middle School yesterday. Booher, who lost many friends in the wreck, is proof that an individual can overcome difficult circumstances. He shared inspiring stories and kept students engaged as he spoke. Before leaving, Jason encouraged students and left these words for students to remember:

{audio}<http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/102613booher.mp3>{/audio}