

Doug Isenberg announced today that he will be a candidate for Magistrate on the Fiscal Court in District #4 of Barren County subject to the Democratic Primary and the General Election in 2014. Mr Isenberg stated, "This decision became a reality after learning that Magistrate Tommy Matthews will not be seeking another term on the Barren County Fiscal Court. □ Mr. Matthews has served our District in a fashion that sets the standards very high for whoever succeeds him on the Court and this presents a special challenge to me to continue the fine service to the citizens of the Fourth District."

Mr. Isenberg is married to the former Maude Traylor and they are the parents of a son, Barry, and a daughter Ellen Bunch and husband Jeff, and are members of the First United Methodist Church in Glasgow. Mr Isenberg stated, "My wife and I have lived in District Four for the entire time Mr. Matthews has served. □ Our children were educated in the Barren County School District, so that we were able to interact with a great number of its residents. □ I realize that the representation extends beyond the Fourth District since many decisions affect all of Barren County and I am prepared to serve the entire county to the best of my ability in that regard. □ With over fifteen years of faithful service to the city of Glasgow as a member of its Council, I feel this certainly helps to qualify me to serve in county government, as well. I would appreciate your vote and support in this endeavor as we attempt to improve the quality of life for the citizens of Barren County."
