

WKU-Glasgow held their Graduand Ceremony last night, at the Plaza Theatre, to celebrate the 97 WKU-Glasgow students that will graduate next week. Several awards were presented including the WKU-Glasgow Scholar Award which went to Jessica Rowe and Morgan Anderson received the WKU-Glasgow Spirit Award.

Among those helping students celebrate this great milestone were Dr. Doug Smith, WKU Department Head for Sociology, Dr. Dennis George, Associate Provost for Regional Higher Education and David Lee, Dean of the Potter College of Arts and Letters. We asked Dean Lee for his thoughts on this year's group of Graduands:

Congratulations to this year's WKU-Glasgow Graduands and also to Ms. Judy Parker as she was honored, last night, for her 27 years of dedicated service to WKU-Glasgow.
