

Next week the calendar turns to 2014 and the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce is out with an analysis. Based on local fiscal reports and federal databases of economic performance in the state's varied regions and what it may mean for the new year. Richard Farmer has details:

{audio}<http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/122813farmer.mp3>{/audio}