

CCPD MAKE DRUG ARREST ON TRAFFIC STOP

Wednesday, 12 March 2014 04:42

Cave City Police Officer Terrill Riley made a traffic stop which resulted in the arrest of 39 year old Jennifer L. Bow of Lucas on Monday evening, after Officer Riley observed Bow on South Dixie Highway not wearing a seat belt. After a brief investigation, Officer Riley determined Bow was under the influence of alcohol and or drugs. Bow was arrested and charged with failure to wear a seat belt, no registration plate, no registration receipt, possession of marijuana, drug paraphernalia, possession of controlled substances 2nd degree, and operating a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol and or drugs aggravated circumstances 1st offense. Bow was lodged in the Barren County Correction Center. Riley was assisted on scene by Cave City Police Officer Danny Coomer.