

Caverna High School has recently received some very exciting news. Principal Brad Phipps tells us more:

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/042514phipps.mp3{/audio}

Included in the grant are internship possibilities. Students at Caverna are interested in securing internships in areas of law, realty and pharmacy tech. There is a huge interest from students in technical areas, such as telecommunicaitons, engineering and welding. Phipps asks that anyone interested in hosting a summer intern to please contact Caverna High School for more information.

The grant also includes accelerated classes for eighth graders.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/042514phipps2.mp3{/audio}

Phipps says Caverna has been making some real strides in college and career readiness over the past four years:

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/042514phipps3.mp3{/audio}

CAVERNA HIGH SCHOOL RECEIVES GRANT FOR SUMMER PROGRAMS

Friday, 25 April 2014 08:16
