

Richard B Miller, age 70 of Bowling Green, died Friday at the Hospice Center of Southern Kentucky. The Breathitt County native was a retired tool supervisor of Woodwork Mid-America. He was a member of Ray's Branch Church of Christ. He was the son of the late Hiram and Dicie Stamper Miller.

He is survived by his wife of 44 years Mary Thomas Miller; four daughters June Bedore and husband Jed of Ovid, NY, Dana Miller of Dallas, TX, Andrea Garrison and husband Elliot of Franklin, KY, Cathy McMurray and husband Doug of Auburn; five brothers, Jessie Miller and wife Wanda, Robert Miller and wife Janice, Silas Miller and wife Sandy, Virgil Miller and wife Janie, all of Bowling Green, and Pryce Miller and wife Sue of Louisville; three sisters, Hazel Eidson and husband Sherman of AZ, Edna Cowles of Edmonson County, and Opal Carter and husband James of Bowling Green. Six grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services for Richard B Miller will be held at 1:30pm Tuesday at the Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green Chapel with burial in the Fairview Cemetery #2. Visitation will be from 3-8pm Sunday, 9am-8pm Monday, and after 9am Tuesday at the funeral home.