

Mr. J. H. "Foods" Crawley, age 70, of the Modoc Community of Cumberland County, Kentucky passed away on Monday May 28, 2012 at his home in Burkesville, Kentucky. He was born on Sunday January 4, 1942 in Glasgow, Kentucky the son of Jim Henry and Alma Lee Nation Crawley. He was a Farmer and Oil Driller.

In addition to his parents he was preceded in death by his nephew, Ronnie Thrahser, his niece, Dunfee Carol Harrington, his brothers-in-law, Robert Conley and James Capps, his son-in-law, Ricky Watson, his father-in-law, Rich Williams, his mother-in-law, Adgie Coop Williams.

Survivors include the mother of his children, Carolyn Williams Crawley of Burkesville, Ky., his children, Tammy Watson of Celina, Tn., Jennifer Crawley of Louisville, Ky., Emily Crawley of Burkesville, Ky. and John Crawley of Burkesville, Ky. his sisters and brother, Jamah (and Martin) Thrasher of Burkesville, Ky., Festus Conley of Burkesville, Ky., Stella (and Lloyd) Cross of Burkesville, Ky., Truesdale (and Pat) Crawley of Burkesville, Ky, his grandchildren, Karlie Watson, Kindre Crawley, Aubrey Elliot, Kailib Crawley, Baleigh Watson, and Charlotte Crawley, his special nieces and nephews, Ronda (and Delbert) Chandler, Sharon (and Jeff) Pickens, Dale Cross, Patrick (and Kristy) Crawley, Laura (and Terry) Riley, plus a host of other nieces and nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews, cousins and friends.

Funeral services will be conducted on Friday, June 1, 2012 at 12:00 noon in the Memory Chapel of Norris-New Funeral Home in Burkesville, Ky. Burial will follow in the Leona Smith-Ferguson Cemetery. The family will receive friends after 7:00 P.M. Wednesday May 30, 2012 until service time on Friday. Professional service provided by Norris-New Funeral Home.