

Judy Rathbun, 72 of Bowling Green, died Dec. 16, 2012, at her daughters home after a long illness. Judy was born in Elgin, IL to the late Wellington Hackman and Robertie Ellen Work Hackman. She graduated from Genoa-Kingston, IL high school and was married to the late Robert Wells Rathbun until his death in 2010. Judy worked as a buyer for Ideal Industries. After moving to Bowling Green, KY she worked at the Kentucky Cancer Program and later at Morris Jewelry. She was an active member of the South Bowling Green Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses and enjoyed sharing her Bible based faith with others. Her passions were her faith, her family and friends, and traveling.

Judy is survived by her three daughters Robin Annabel (Roy) of Bowling Green, Ruth Fisher of Tuscon, AZ, Renee Larson (Jim) of Bowling Green, son-in-law Brian Fisher, grandson Gabriel Fisher of Bowling Green, one brother Robert Hackman (Denice) of Illinois and several nieces and nephews.

A visitation will be from 1:00-3:00 p.m. Saturday at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 4655 Russellville Rd with memorial service to follow. Arrangements by Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green Chapel.

Expressions of sympathy may take the form of contributions to the Worldwide Work of Jehovah's Witnesses or to Hospice of Southern Kentucky, Inc.
