

Stanley “Pud” W. Riordan, 92, of West Columbia, South Carolina, formerly of Whickerville, passed away Thursday. Mr. Riordan worked as a Distiller at National Distillers in Louisville. He retired from there after 25 years of service.

He is survived by his loving wife of 28 years, Rita Downs Riordan; Children: Dorothy Bernice VanBrussel of Louisville; Michael T. Riordan of Madisonville, Tom Baker and wife Robin of Nashville, Indiana; Step-children: Delores Morgan and husband Mark of Lexington, South Carolina, Barbara Gregory and husband Mike of Wolcottville, Indiana, Carl Nunn of Upton and Jimmy Nunn and wife Valerie of Hodgenville. Seven grandchildren , Four great-grandchildren and One great-great-grandchild also surviving.

Graveside services for Stanley “Stan” W. Riordan will be at 2PM Sunday at the Winn Funeral Home with burial in the Riordan Family Cemetery. Visitation at Winn Funeral Home Chapel, Sunday from 11-1PM.

The family wishes to express their heartfelt appreciation to the Agape Hospice House in Columbia, SC for the loving care they provided to Mr. Riordan and the family.