

Berthel "Buck" Seabolt, 79, of Roundhill died Feb. 11, 2013 at his home. The Edmonson County native was a Linesman for CSX Railroad and a member of Hopewell Missionary Baptist Church. He was a son of the late Dillard "Dee" Seabolt and Dempsey Osborne Seabolt and the husband of the late Mae Hayes Seabolt.

Surviving are two sons, Mickey Parker and Terry Parker (Gerri) of Louisville; a daughter, Veronica Parker of Roundhill; four brothers, Dallas Seabolt (Jeanette) of Roundhill, Randall Seabolt (Joyce) of Indianapolis, Tommy Seabolt (Barbara) of Louisville and Johnny Seabolt (Patty) of Vine Grove; four sisters, Eurbana Webb (Robert) of Louisville, Juanita Minton (Richard) of Chalybeate, Emma Miller (Larry) of Alvaton and Nola Reynolds (David) of Cedar Springs; nine grandchildren, David Parker, Mickey Parker Jr., Chris Parker, Chasity Penick, Jillian MacGruder, Timmy Parker, Jason Grimes, Melissa Parker and Versie Parker; and 20 great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a son, Anthony Todd Parker; and two sisters, Versie Parker and Ersie Cherry.

Funeral will be at 11:00 AM Friday at Gravit Funeral Home with burial in Cub Creek Cemetery. Visitation will be 6-9 PM Wednesday, 9 AM-9 PM Thursday and after 9 AM Friday at the funeral home.